After breakfast and a detailed trip briefing from the Adventure guides, we take a short transfer to buy our Angkor Park Pass and then head out of town and begin our trek. Heading out south-east across dazzling green rice-paddies and farmland, we pass through several small villages. Cambodia is one of the friendliest countries in South-East Asia and we will get plenty of smiles and waves as we pass! We're never far from a temple or pagoda, and we make time to stop at a couple for a closer look. After a lunch-break in one of the villages, we continue our trek through rice fields and green pastures, now heading north to the pagoda from there we will take a transfer to Wat Preash Bat Bunthan for camping. The transfer will take around 50 minutes.

Following cow cart tracks, we wind our way towards Beang Mealea Temple and the fascinating ruins of this little visited temple. We have the opportunity to explore before taking a short transfer to our evenings campsite at Svay Leu Pagoda. There is often a lively local market near the pagoda which we should have time to explore – a real insight into the way of life in this remote area.

After an energising breakfast we set off on a challenging haul to the top of Kulen Mountain (487m), Cambodia's sacred mountain. Deeply revered, the local people make pilgrimages to the pagodas and ruins on the mountain top. The mountain forms a high plateau, from where there are fabulous views across the forests and fields below. We head west across the mountain, taking undulating tracks through the forests and villages. We stop for lunch in Anlong Thom, a small village of stilted thatched houses. After a long day's hike, we arrive at our riverside campground.

Take a shower and a swim in the river. Tonight, we have a fabulous meal and sleep to the sound of the flowing river.

Day 5: Kulen Mountain – Tbang Pagoda

(B/L/D)

We set off after a hearty breakfast and our trek continues to the 'Big Buddha', which overlooks the central plain; a short distance on is a very picturesque waterfall where you are welcome to take a swim. Now it's another short trek to the famous 'River of 1000 Lingas' and admire the elaborate carvings in the riverbed itself and take another swim if you like. Continue on down on an old trail, now little-used since the recent construction of a road. We may meet a few local people who still use the path for hunting, cutting lianas and to work on the farms higher in the hills. Our trek continues south-east on a small jungle trail down the mountain. Back on the flat plains, we continue our trek on sandy, sometimes muddy tracks. There is little shade as we pass a few villages, local schools and an abundance of pagodas. We will be hot and tired by the time we reach our evening's campsite, our final goal nearly within reach.

Overnight in Camp site at Tbang Pagoda.

Distance and journey time:

Transfer: none

Trekking distance approximately 18km over 6-7 hours

Day 6: Tbang – Angkor Wat - Angkor Thom

We enjoy a final breakfast together in camp before setting off on the final 7km of our trek to Angkor Wat. The first section of our trek is on a tarmac road before we return to cow cart tracks leading towards the Angkor complex. We reach the first of our Angkor temples at Prasat Ta Som, then load up into the local mode of transport and journey in style to Angkor Wat in a colourful procession of tuk tuks. We pass many temples and ruins as we near our goal – the ultimate reward for our efforts this week include the spectacular walled city of Angkor Thom and the famous Bayon, standing in the exact heart of the city. Adorned with fabulous wall carvings and mysterious giant faces, the Bayon is a real highlight of our challenge. We then continue to the magnificent 12th Century Angkor Wat. It is worth climbing the remarkably steep and narrow steps of the central spire for the unparalleled view over the whole temple. We are free to explore the temple complex until sunset, when we transfer to our hotel by bus.

After a long shower we celebrate our huge achievement with a celebration farewell VIP set dinner at a stylish restaurant very close to the famous Pub Street and Night Market with a menu that combines both eastern and western flavours. It also has an extensive wine and cocktail list, and their comfy lounges make it a great place not only for a restaurant, but also to relax with a drink after your many days of touring.
